 ing for Albuquerque, whither he goes as oro will take in the fair, and when he returns our readers may confidently expect an interesting account of both events.—Lincoln News.

 This is, doubtless, the same fraud who was in White Oaks a short while ago soliciting aid from our miners, who made up a purse of about $40 for him, which appears, from the above, to have been gambled away. Charity sometimes meets with discouragements.

 it and testifying to its efficacy." This

The Lincoln News, under its present management, is a good live paper, and deserves a liberal support from the business men of the county seat, but from the following it would appear to have located in the wrong town. The News says: "The WHITE OAKS EAGLE comes to us weekly filled with pay locals of the enterprising business men of that town; but vary a line do you ever see in the News." There are no flies on the business men of White Oaks, and if people want goods they can get them at low prices here. Our merchants advertise.

THE SOLUTION SUFFICIENT.

A few weeks ago a Nogales, Arizona, young man bought a pair of socks containing a note saying that the writer was an employee of the Kenosha, Wis., knitting works, and wanted a good husband.
 She gave her name and requested the buyer, if unmated, to write with a view of matrimony. The young man who found the note considered the matter in all its phases, and then decided to write to the girl. He did, awaiting a reply with anxiety. He was at last rewarded with a curt letter, stating that the girl was now the mother of two children and had been married four years, and the letter had been written ever so long ago. It was a "sneak-dologer," and the young man hunted for a solution. He found it: The merchant of whom he bought the socks doesn't advertise.

MINING AND MILLING.

The South mill fired up Tuesday.
 She's all right.

All the mills in camp are now pounding continuously.

It is reported that a new body of valuable ore has been opened on the America.

As the shaft on the Elizabeth deepens the ore improves in value and the veins grow larger and every way better.

Mr. Dillard was in Monday and reports continuous work on his mine at Vera Cruz and a decided improvement as work progresses.

THE WHITE OAKS EAGLE has location notices for sale. They comply with the law and are the best location notices ever offered to the miners of Lincoln county.

A large mining deal is reported on hand, involving one of the prominent mining properties of this camp. We hope to be able to give definite information concerning it soon.

The mining outlook in Lincoln county never was so flattering as at present, reports from all the camps showing unusual activity, and the discovery of new ore bodies in property that is being worked is of daily occurrence. Discoveries are more frequent than for many years, and the close of this year will be the most prosperous that the county has ever known.

"ABOUT MOSQUITOES."

Under the above head the Albuquerque Citizen has a long article discussing the characteristics of the insect. This reminds us that children born in White Oaks never saw or heard a mosquito, unless they have gone abroad, and the older inhabitants have almost forgotten what they are like. There are none in this locality.

SHOOTING AT LAS CRUCES.

A special dispatch to the Citizen from Las Cruces N. M., Sept. 16th, says: At 10 o'clock last night our town was thrown into wild excitement by a dastardly attempt to kill Constable Ben. Williams.
 Williams was going up the sidewalk on the dark side of the main street, and there encountered Judge A. B. Fall and his brother-in-law, Joe Morgan, who is a deputy United States marshal. Morgan was behind an awning post at the edge of the sidewalk in front of R. L. Young's law office. As Williams passed Morgan, the latter fired at Williams at close range the powder burning his face, and the bullet passed through Williams' head above and behind his ear. Williams was at the same time shot from another direction, the ball penetrating his left arm near the elbow and coming out near the shoulder, injuring the bone and inflicting a serious wound. Williams fell, and while down fired two or three shots, one of which struck Morgan in the left arm.
 Some seven or eight shots were fired.

There is a universal feeling of indignation amongst citizens of all classes, it being the general opinion that the attempted assassination of Williams is the result of a cowardly conspiracy. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Fall and Morgan. The enmity of Fall and Morgan against Williams is said to have originated from the action of Williams in having Morgan arrested and sent back to Texas to answer an old charge of murder.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

A private letter, says the New Mexican, from Las Cruces brings word that the disgraceful political row which has involved that community ever since the last general election culminated on Saturday night in a shooting scrape between Joe Morgan and Ben Williams.
 The latter isto-day nursing a badly shattered right arm, the result of one of Morgan's bullets, while Morgan has a flesh wound in the arm and side caused by Williams' six-shooter. Williams is said to have started the trouble.

Morgan is Judge A. B. Fall's brother-in-law. Williams is a former U. S. deputy marshal and is now a detective for the Southwestern New Mexico cattle association. Excitement runs high.

CONSUMERS OF

PRINTING

should bear in mind that the main difference between poor and effective printing lies chiefly in the typesetting, and that this is really the smallest item of the whole cost. The paper, press work and binding may be the same, but 10 per cent. added to the item of typesetting may make the finished work look 50 per cent. better. It is in this particular feature that

THE EAGLE
 excels. The work demonstrates this fact.
